Supernatural Turnaround Testimonies

Deliverance from the Siege of Misfortune!

“When I was eight years old, I was kidnapped by my grandmother and taken to the village. Since then, I experienced diverse afflictions. In 2002, I started being molested sexually in my dreams. I tried to stop it but to no avail. Also, I resigned without reasons from companies I worked for.

Later, I confronted my paternal grandmother. I asked her why I was the only one having challenges among my eight siblings. In response, she said my stubbornness was responsible for my problems. Thereafter, I gave my life to Christ and believed God for divine intervention. But in January 2015, I resigned because I was tired of my situation and believed God for my deliverance. To the glory of God, I was informed on Thursday, January 22, 2015 that my grandmother was dead. Lo and behold, that same day, I received three job offers. Praise the Lord!” — Favour, D.

Divine Vengeance is real!

“My grandmother had been behind the afflictions in my family. Although she was confronted with the death of my parents, she denied being responsible. When the 21-day prayer and fasting for 2012 began, I participated wholeheartedly and believed God for a change of story in my family. During the second vigil on January 20, 2012, the Bishop instructed us to declare fire on our enemies and I did. Few days later, I received a call from my aunt in Malawi that my grandmother got burnt and could not walk since the night of the vigil. She informed me that the fire only burnt her and not the room where she was. Today, things are working well for my family. I give God all the glory for avenging me!” — Sis. Twammie
