

her beloved ever came back— SoS. 5:1-10

My prayer is that no one among us shall be a victim of the spirit of slumber in this prophetic season, and I decree that every winner comes awake to make the most of this highly prophetic opportunity, as we target:

- Our business acquaintances, partners, customers, workers, clients etc.
- Our domestic staff for those who have them such as drivers, cooks, gardeners, cleaners, security etc.
- Our service providers, such as: electricians, plumbers, motor mechanics, barbers, hairdressers, suppliers etc.

I see each one coming forth with minimum 4 established souls in the course of these 7 weeks of Operation Hit Your Target, in addition to all other souls we have secured by grace through our other various outreaches.

May we all have grace to enter into what God has prepared for us as individuals, as we step into the realm of 'things that eyes have not seen, nor ears heard' in the course of this prophetic weeks of harvest. In the name of Jesus Christ. Amen!

Jesus is Lord!

Wonders of Divine Opportunities

The kind that gave Peter his place in destiny ...Luk. 5:1-11...

We understand from scriptures that every divine visitation provides an opportunity for the advancement and next level breakthrough of believers — Zeph. 3:17-20

In the same vein, every revelation of the word provides an opportunity for our desired change of story, if we choose to embrace it, as it is written, 'but we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord' — 2 Cor. 3:18

Every time light breaks forth from the word, it changes the story of those who care to receive, believe, and walk in it — Jhn. 12:35-36

God's word is a pool of opportunities, like the pool of Bethesda; every time revelation breaks forth from the word, whosoever first steps into such pool of revelation is made whole of whatever disease he had — Jhn. 5:1-4

Peter had an opportunity and welcomed Christ into his boat, and that singular opportunity changed his story forever — Luk. 5:1-11/Mat. 16:18

When we engage with any move of the Spirit, it moves our lives forward, advances our course, and rewrites our story, as we saw in the following examples:

Bartimaeus took advantage of the passing by of Christ, Jesus heard his cry, called on him, and gave him back his sight — Mak. 10:46-52

The paralytic man won't let go, he must have said within himself, 'if Christ is in that house, whether through the door or the roof, I must get in', his insistence made those that carried him to let him in through the roof, he was made whole and took up his bed and went to his house — Mak. 2:1-12

Zacchaeus would have said, 'if Christ would pass through this road, I must see Him'. He, therefore, climbed the Sycamore tree, and when Jesus saw him on the tree, He said, "Zacchaeus, come down, today, salvation has come to your house" — Luk. 19:1-9

The woman with the issue of blood pressed to get through to Jesus, despite the tight security around Him, and the multitudes thronging Him. She seized the opportunity, touched the hem of Jesus' garment and the flow of blood ceased — Mat. 9:20-22

Operation Hit Your Target is another divinely orchestrated opportunity for every winner who cares to seize it.

Many shall experience fearful order of favour in return for taking pleasure in bringing souls into the kingdom and this church — Psa. 102:13-15

Many shall be turned to living wonders among men by their unreserved dedication towards the full delivery of their portion in the ongoing prophetic weeks of harvest — Psa. 119:46/Psa. 71:7

The souls are all around us groaning for rescue, all we need is to lift up our eyes from our personal concerns and crave to see God meet the eternal needs of those around us, that is, the salvation of their souls — Jhn. 4:35-36

As we all know, prompt response is the way to maximize any move of the Spirit, as we saw at the pool of Bethesda — Jhn. 5:1-4

Delayed response can be costly, we saw the parable of the beloved, how she delayed in opening the door and by the time she did, her beloved was gone. She suffered untold humiliation, as the watchmen caught her, took off her veil, and got her beaten up. We were not told if
